SHANGHAI The Most Addictive Computer Game Ever Created.

Mah Jongg—the 3000-year-old Chinese obsession of sailors, warriors, scoundrels and kings. Brought to America in the 1920s, it lured innocent players to addiction and was banned in Philadelphia. Now the best of this game returns to Shanghai.

Stacked in the shape of a formidable dragon, the ancient tiles stand ready for battle. And you'll need dead-on strategy to win.

You'll play it. And replay it. But you'll never get over the driving urge to play it again. Because quitting is the hardest part.

PHOTON VIDEO TRANSPORT CONTROLLER The Link Between Your Amiga and Videotape.

The Photon Video Transport Controller links your Amiga to external videotape frame-by-frame controllers, such as the Lyon Lamb™ and Video Media's V-Lan™ system. The Transport Controller also works with most 3rd-party software as well. Record up to 300,000 frames each time an image is displayed or edit short real-time animations.

The Transport Controller fully supports multi-tasking, using less than 50K of memory (less than 10K on a 1Mb Amiga). Requires an external video controller interface. WD-MI26

PHOTON VIDEO CEL ANIMATOR

Create Professional-Quality Animations on Your Amiga.

Photon Video Cel Animator gives you unequalled versatility for creating professional-quality animations. Audio and video synchronization. A built-in paint program, plus compatibility with Photon Paint and most other paint programs for the Amiga.

Create each drawing only once, identify it with a frame number, and store it on disk. (Each frame has its own palette, to simplify editing.) Then specify frame order, speed, and delays between frames to replay and perfect every animation.

Digitize a pre-recorded sound track and replay it frame by frame. Or select any group of frames to replay, so you can locate and identify sounds prior to doing an animation, then print an exposure sheet.

Use Photon Video Cel Animator in conjunction with the Photon Video Transport Controller (see above) to record animations frame by frame. WD-MI25
